

(South West) Limited

Training UK Industry

Course Objectives for 402 Slinger/Signaller

It is envisaged that at the end of the course the learner will be able to answer questions on and perform the following:

- Have a basic understanding of the industry, the dangers of working in the industry and their responsibilities as a Slinger/Signaller
- Be able to conform to manufacturer requirements as per technical data, conform to relevant legislation and regulations
- Be able to locate, identify and explain different types of lifting equipment & lifting accessories. Explain their basic construction, uses, applications and their functions
- Be able to interpret and extract information on all relevant documentation
- Undertake all pre-use checks on non- specialist lifting accessories and identify non serviceable items
- Explain procedures for placing non serviceable items out of service
- Identify and explain centres of gravity and calculate estimated weights of loads
- Set up exclusion zone explaining actions required for emergency actions, identify any overhead hazards
- Identify and maintain PPE appropriate for Slinger/Signaller use
- Secure various types of loads to a hook using the relevant lifting accessories and procedures ensuring load balance, security and integrity
- Direct and guide the movement of loads to different types of location using different methods of communication
- Environmental considerations
- Carry out all out of service and securing procedures

